Re: Feldstein v. Amazon.com LLC, et al., No. 3:15-cv-07322-BRM-TJB

Dear Judge Martinotti:

We represent Defendant Amazon.com, LLC ("Amazon") in the above-referenced matter. As Your Honor is aware, the parties agreed to resolve this matter. The Court entered an Order on March 27, 2017 administratively terminating the action and requiring submission of all papers necessary to dismiss the action within 60 days. (Dkt. 42.) Absent receipt of these submissions, the Order provides for dismissal of the action by the Court. (Id.) The 60 day deadline under the Order is May 26, 2017. The parties are still working to finalize their settlement, but request additional time to do so. Accordingly, we respectfully request on behalf of all parties a two-week extension of time until June 9, 2017, to submit the dismissal papers required by the Court's March 27, 2017 Order.

A proposed form of Order has been submitted to Magistrate Judge Bongiovanni via email.

Sincerely,

W. John Lee

Civil Action No. 3:15-cv-07322-BRM-
TJB

AMENDED ORDER ADMINISTRATIVELY TERMINATING ACTION

It having been reported to the Court that the above-captioned action has been settled, the Court administratively terminated this Action on March 27, 2017. (Dkt. 42.) The Court hereby amends its Order (Dkt. 42), such that

IT IS on this ____ day of May, 2017,

ORDERED that this action and any pending motions remain administratively terminated; and it is further

ORDERED that this shall not constitute a dismissal Order under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; and it is further

ORDERED that by June 9, 2017 (two weeks after the expiration of the 60-day period identified in the Order (Dkt. 42)), the parties shall file all papers necessary to dismiss this action under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or, if settlement cannot be consummated, request that the action be reopened; and it is further

ORDERED that, absent receipt from the parties of dismissal papers or a request to reopen the action within the two week extension period, the Court shall dismiss this action, without further notice, with prejudice and without costs.

BY THE COURT:

Brian R. Martinotti, U.S.D.J.
